

RIB TICKLERS

TEACHER: Maria, go to the map and find North America .

MARIA: Here it is.

TEACHER: Correct. Now class, who discovered America ?

CLASS: Maria.

TEACHER: John, why are you doing your math multiplication on the floor?

JOHN: You told me to do it without using tables.

TEACHER: Glenn, how do you spell 'crocodile?' GLENN: K-R-O-K-O-D-I-A-L'

TEACHER: No, that's wrong

GLENN: Maybe it is wrong, but you asked me how I spell it. (I Love this kid)

TEACHER: Donald, what is the chemical formula for water?

DONALD: H I J K L M N O.

TEACHER: What are you talking about?

DONALD: Yesterday you said it's H to O.

TEACHER: Winnie, name one important thing we have today that we didn't have ten years ago.

WINNIE: Me!

TEACHER: Glen, why do you always get so dirty?

GLEN: Well, I'm a lot closer to the ground than you are.

TEACHER: Millie, give me a sentence starting with ' I.. '

MILLIE: I is..

TEACHER: No, Millie..... Always say, 'I am.'

MILLIE: All right... 'I am the ninth letter of the alphabet.'

TEACHER: Now, Simon, tell me frankly, do you say prayers before eating?

SIMON: No sir, I don't have to, my Mom is a good cook.

TEACHER: Clyde, your composition on 'My Dog' is exactly the same as your brother's. Did you copy his?

CLYDE : No, sir. It's the same dog

PROFILE— RITA CLULEY

Having grown up on the far North Coast of N.S.W. on a small property between Lismore & Casino I was used to riding horses and staying at my aunt's beach house at Ballina where my cousins & I enjoyed school holidays. I spent a great deal of time with my Grandparents in Lismore where an aunt who was a music teacher coerced me into entering various musical items at the Lismore Eisteddfod. She of course gave me piano & singing lessons at every opportunity, something which eventually played a large part in my life.

An interesting thing I have recently discovered when we joined Dot Chapman at a Movie morning is that she grew up at Casino & was actually taught by another aunt of mine, Lil Pye, at Casino Public School! It is indeed a small world.

I found my music background played a great part of my teaching career after spending time at Lismore High School, Armidale Teachers College & Macquarie University, as anyone who could train a choir or orchestra was in great demand. I eventually learned to play the flute, also, & added that to my teaching. However, I thoroughly enjoyed the challenge of these activities & continued merrily, musically on till my retirement. Teaching in Sydney gave me a taste of city life. Later, my husband (whom I had met at Armidale T. C.) & I eventually moved to the Riverina near Leeton for five years with our growing family, thence back, of course, home to the North Coast. There I spent time at Casino, Whyrallah Rd. & Goonellabah Schools enjoying my time teaching & becoming involved in sport as well as music, of course. I also spent time traveling around the Regional schools being involved with the Disadvantaged Schools' Program, a task which I found most rewarding.

After retiring we found time to travel to a host of places, sometimes with friends, in Australia as well as overseas, where we also enjoy immensely the challenge of both making our own way around & chatting to friendly locals. We have made other friends in this manner who still communicate by email when we can manage to translate the general gist of things. A couple of years after retiring we decided to leave the big city & join our youngest daughter in Darwin....a much warmer spot!! We have three grandchildren here now (another at Swan Lake, near Sussex Inlet, N.S.W.) to keep us on our toes. In Darwin we've spent a time with the Darwin Chorale (music again, of course) & have been members of the N.T. Historical Society for some years enjoying their investigative outings, particularly the weekend camps to far flung places of the N.T.
